

Friends very delightfully yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Steiner on R street. The guessing contests created much amusement. The prizes being won by Mrs. Bents and Miss Coddard. Mrs. Christy, Mrs. Gantz and Mrs. Kate Anderson furnished the music of the afternoon. Mrs. Hugh Park read an excellent paper and Mrs. John Reed gave several selections. Refreshments were served in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated in yellow and white, the society colors. The invited guests were: Messrs. Whitaker, Eosrud, Halm, Gordon, Eckers, Cassidy, Gantz, Reed, Blakely, Miller, Adams, Bickford, Hopson, Whitney, Hanchett, Pearl, Johnson, Christy, Jacobson, Wilson, Andrews, Hale, Sanford, Wilkinson, Messrs. Ruth Palmer, Cohn, Chandler, Clark, Allen, Wickham, Critchlow, Dulce, Peterson, Davis, Dorn, Lawson, Berg.

The Catholic Literary and Social club will entertain next Tuesday evening. A fine musical and literary programme will be given.

Miss Ella Tremayne was the hostess of a very pleasant party given Wednesday evening in honor of her birthday. Cards and candy-pulling were indulged in during the evening. Those present were: Misses Ella Tremayne, Fanny Moore, Annie Tremayne, Kate Wells, Maud Daryl, Ethel Winder, Maud King, Bertha Kimball and Artie King; Messrs. Len Hodgdy, Charles Mills, Frank Breame, Will Lakin, Lewis Barker, Ernest Sawyer, John Henry, Mark Nevins, Earl Warren and Roy Tremayne.

Miss Mary Terry and Miss May Adams entertained in honor of Miss Cora Davison of New York at the home of Mrs. James Terry. The house was beautifully decorated. Music and games were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. Among the guests were: Miss Cora Davison, Mr. and Mrs. James Terry, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Smith, the Misses Mary Adams, Mildred Koch, Mary Terry, Wilda McKnight, Rubie McEuen, Mattie Muir, Maud Young, Elizabeth, Doris Hill, Emma Hamer, Carrie Winder, Messrs. Dudley Rich, Mark Winder, Yuse McKnight, J. W. Smith, Roy Eccles, Art Williams.

The Opal club decided to leave the Short Line station next Wednesday evening at 7:15 o'clock for Provo, where the club will spend the evening as the guests of the Terpsichore club. Upon arriving at the Garden City the visitors will be taken in charge by the Terpsichore club and escorted to the Mozart hall, a new and spacious dancing establishment, where the ball will take place. Great preparations have been made for the event and it is promised that this fraternizing on the part of the two clubs will result in a very pleasant time, not only on this particular occasion, but also at many times in the future. The Opal club invitation being limited to fifty couples, nearly all tickets have been spoken for, and it is in place to note that those who cannot accompany the club on this pleasure trip and have not engaged tickets had best do so at once. With transportation for each couple Opal club tickets of admission will be given and only those holding such tickets will be admitted.

A dainty and select party was given Friday evening at the Ladies' Literary club home by the Ellic Social club in honor of John Reynolds, who will shortly depart for Germany. The early part of the evening was spent in dancing. Later the guests repaired to the banquet hall, where an elegant spread was served. President Seabrook, the toastmaster, together with the funny men of the club, kept the party in a merry mood until an early hour, when Mr. Seabrook was presented with a beautiful snow-white "owl" by the keeper of the keys and punch bowl. The toasts were many and appropriate and the affair will be remembered as the most successful of the season. Those present were: Ivy Glenn, Lillie Ashtown, Julia Johnson, Elsie Farnes, Barbara Brown, Eva Lambert, Ida Seabrook, Tille L. Perkins, Anna Cowan, Mary Hunter, Lillie Hunter, Elsiea Mitchell, Juanita Miller, Katie Eskine, Mary Thomas, Annie Arnold, Laura Newton, Pearl Lambert, Estelle Snowball, Olive E. Evans, Lena Jack, Maggie Gray, Jennie Buckley, Messrs. Roy Hogarth, Claude Eskine, Thomas Hollberg, W. H. Farnes, A. H. Seabrook, Horace V. Altres, Alex Cowan, Jr., John Reynolds, W. D. McGilivray, W. J. Lewis, Jr., J. McPhail, William Everett, Elmer Thomas, Oscar Sandberg, E. A. Vincent, Bert McArthur, W. A. Perkins, Roy Lancaster, William Warburton, James Gray, E. Lancaster and "The Owl".

Marriage Licenses.

During the week the following permits to wed were issued by the county clerk of Salt Lake county:

Name	Age
Charles G. Anderson, Salt Lake City	23
Hattie A. Barclay, Salt Lake City	23
Frank Henry, Denver, Colo.	24
Elizabeth Sampson, Salt Lake City	24
William K. Egan, Bountiful	24
Lilla Sessions, Bountiful	25
George Meadell, Pleasant Grove	25
Sarah T. Rowley, American Fork	25
John T. Johnson, Pueblo, Colo.	25
Rhebe A. Jensen, Manassa, Colo.	25
John Woolashan, Butte, Mont.	25
Flora McDonaugh, Butte, Mont.	25
John T. Butler, Mill Creek	25
Rachael Holmes, Mill Creek	25
Benton J. Hudson, Evansville, Ind.	25
Mabel L. Kelsey, Leavenworth, Colo.	25
John A. Stinson, Salt Lake City	25
Margaret (Mrs.) Salt Lake City	25
John Clerk, Salt Lake City	25
Emily A. Alsworth, Salt Lake City	25
Charles Brown, Bingham	25
Lillie Durham, Bingham	25
Thomas W. Farnes, Bingham	25
Little Taylor, Roy	25
Will A. Gudgeon, Salt Lake City	25
Edith V. Hodges, Salt Lake City	25
Andrew H. Butcher, Salt Lake City	25
Frances M. Stillman, East Mill Creek	25
Emil Pearson, Salt Lake City	25
Hein Nelson, Salt Lake City	25
William Palmer, Evanston, Wyo.	25
Alice Ayer, Evanston, Wyo.	25
Olof H. Carlson, Salt Lake City	25
Ida H. Kronow, Salt Lake City	25
Rufus A. Marsh, Grantville	25
Alice A. Sanders, Grantville	25
James B. Robinson, Bingham	25
Sophia A. Anderson, Lund, Kan.	25
Peter J. McDonough, Salt Lake City	25
Marion L. Poulos, Salt Lake City	25

OGDEN.
Ogden, April 13.—The beginning of the after-Lenten season was fittingly celebrated by a brilliant ball given Thursday evening by the Bohemian club, under the direction of Arthur Kuhn and known as the Easter assembly. A specialty was made of the music. Christmas tree or here of eleven pieces being used. About seventy-five couples participated in the dance, which was most successful and exceptionally brilliant array of tolets was noticeable.

The Weber club entertained for the ladies Easter Tuesday at its rooms, which have been elegantly refitted.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Donaldson of seventeenth street are to remove to Utah this week.

Monday morning at 9 o'clock, in the Church of the Good Shepherd, occurred the wedding of Miss Laura E. Vicks of Wells, Nev., to Homer Jenkins, Rev. W. E. Mason officiated and a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom's mother, 270 Lincoln avenue. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins left for California.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Watis are in Ogden from Oxford, Ida.

Miss Charles Malon and family have removed to Salt Lake.

Miss Dot Hart left for Omaha Thursday, where she will visit friends.

Among the social events of the week is the ball to be given in the Fifth ward on Monday evening, April 15, by the Sunday school, for the benefit of the kindergarten department. A good time is assured to all. Refreshments may be had.

The concert Thursday evening and Saturday afternoon in the tabernacle by a chorus of 400 children, under the leadership of Joseph Ballantyne, were eminently successful.

Mrs. J. L. Herrick entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Olga Svenson of Salt Lake. Cards and music were indulged in and dainty refreshments were served. The invited guests were: Mrs. Mamie Richards, Misses Vida Eccles, Lettie Richards, Pearl Richards, Kate Carnahan, Louise Percy, Emma Stevens, Manie Harrington, Lettie Herrick, Veda Littlefield, Lettie Herrick, Messrs. J. C. McFarland, Walt Herrick, Will Purdy, Ken Treseder, Henry Stevens, Lester Scoville, W. L. Watis and Edward O. McNulty of New York.

M. H. Carr left Thursday for an extended business trip east.

Mrs. Jennie Nelson was a Salt Lake visitor last week.

Mrs. Gertrude Thomas of Fort Bridger, Wyo., returned home last week after a month's visit in Ogden.

O. D. Payne and wife left Tuesday for the coast.

Mrs. D. H. Peery was a Salt Lake visitor last week.

James Nelson will leave Monday for Peoria, Ill., where he will take a course in watchmaking.

Mrs. E. T. Morton is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. McGaw.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Griffin of Terrace were Ogden visitors last week.

Miss Le Von Pierce of Brigham City returned to her home today.

Miss Olga Svenson of Salt Lake, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. L. Herrick, returned home today.

Mrs. F. W. Baker entertained a few friends Thursday evening.

La Cotarie meets Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Gideon on Nth Hill.

PARK CITY.
Park City, April 13.—James T. Keasel, foreman of the Anchor mill, left this morning for Green River, Wyo., where he will meet Miss Mary T. Webb of Morris, N. Y., and accompany her to Salt Lake City, where they will be married early next week. They will return to the Park next Thursday.

The ladies of St. Luke's Guild will serve supper next Thursday evening.

Miss Thackeray, one of the teachers of the public schools, left this afternoon for Salt Lake, and next week will accompany Mr. and Mrs. James D. Murdoch on an extended European trip. Miss Kate Levenson will take Miss Thackeray's place as teacher.

Ex-County Recorder J. A. Smith came up from Coalville Thursday to accept a position at the Silver King mine.

Mrs. Sylvester Johnson of Salt Lake is the guest of Mrs. Nellie Thiriot.

After a pleasant visit with friends in Salt Lake, Mrs. Arthur Weeter returned home Thursday morning.

Wednesday last Mrs. Ed Taylor and sons departed for San Francisco, where they intend to reside in the future.

Grand Chancellor C. P. Jennings, Grand Keeper of Records and Seals A. H. Wardleigh of Ogden, George R. Stoney of Provo and Grand Master-at-Arms H. M. Standish of Salt Lake made an official visit to Park lodge No. 1 K. of P., last Tuesday evening. East Grand Chancellor John S. Corlew of Ogden was also a visitor.

Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb left for a month's visit to California. Mr. J. A. Mallia is filling the position of secretary of the Silver King Mining company during Mr. Lamb's absence.

Mrs. T. C. Golt returned from Salt Lake the first of the week, where she enjoyed a visit with relatives.

A pleasant surprise was given on Willie O'Keefe Monday evening, the occasion being the young man's sixteenth birthday. Dancing, singing and various games were indulged in, and all present were delightfully entertained. Bounteous refreshments were served.

Wednesday evening a special train carried twenty knights of Pythias to Coalville, where a new lodge was instituted. The boys were royally entertained and the trip was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Mame Paxton is back to the Park after a month's visit with her brother in Stockton, Utah.

Mrs. F. W. Hay returned Wednesday morning from a short visit to the city.

Mrs. F. A. McCarty, Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. F. C. Thompson returned from the city Tuesday morning.

Miss Cora Sutton returned from Provo Tuesday morning, after a pleasant visit with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. P. McPherson were visitors to the metropolis this week.

Cashier W. W. Armstrong returned home from Salt Lake Tuesday morning.

The ladies of the Degree of Honor entertained in the lodge room next Thursday evening. A novel entertainment is promised.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Lee Wright came up from Salt Lake to make her home in our midst.

Mr. Ed Rasevear, who for the past seven months has been attending the Northwestern College of Pharmacy at Chicago, returned to the Park Friday morning and will resume his former position with H. G. Bates.

Mr. Ed Rosevear, who for the past Past Noble Grand at her home Thursday afternoon. An elegant spread was prepared, the being handsomely decorated with cut flowers, pink and white being the prevailing colors. Several musical selections were rendered by Mrs. Lee McClelland, Miss Ida, and the ladies present enjoyed a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. W. N. Armstrong leaves tomorrow on an extended visit with her mother at Irving, Kan.

A surprise party was given Miss Ellen Crossman Tuesday evening at the home of her parents.

James Farrell was a visitor to Salt Lake this week.

While Mr. Mallia is attending to the duties of the downtown office of the Silver King, Mr. Pete Tallon is performing the duties of Mr. Mallia at the mine office.

Thursday afternoon a delightful Kensington tea was given by Mrs. W. J. Buck at her home in honor of Mrs. Pike. A beautiful silk pillow was presented to the guest of honor, which was made by the ladies, and displayed some handsome needlework. Delicate refreshments were served and an enjoyable afternoon spent. Those present were Madames Woolsey, Hartwell, O. O. Snyder, Bell, Love, N. M. Wilson, Boggs, C. M. Wilson, Morris, Phillips, Towey, Fraser, Pike, White, Gray, A. Williams, Emery, Conrad Sherman, Reynolds, Hayt, Misses Laning and Baillie.

A pleasant surprise was given Mayor George Smith Wednesday evening. About twenty-five couples invaded his home, took possession and with music, singing, dancing and refreshments a general good time was enjoyed.

Dan Bader was among the prominent visitors to the metropolis this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rice have departed for California, where they will enjoy a few weeks' visit.

Mrs. Rose Muhall was a visitor to Salt Lake this week.

Miss Hilma Nyberg was a passenger to Salt Lake Friday afternoon and will remain in that city for several weeks.

After an extended visit in the Park with friends, Miss Lillie Deming left for her home in Coalville this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Dunn, who will visit in that burg for a week or so.

Mrs. Jane Kervin is visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Lulu Roy and Miss Frieda Funk were passengers to Salt Lake yesterday for a few days' visit.

The ladies of the Congregational Church society gave a musical entertainment at their church Monday evening.

CLUB NEWS.
Ladies' Literary Club.
The programme at the Literary club Friday afternoon was an entertaining one. Mrs. C. S. Kinney read a paper on "A Woman's View of the Modern Newspaper." Judge C. C. Goodwin replied in a witty manner.

Following the meeting a business session was held. The election committee was appointed. Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Montgomery being selected. Mrs. Henry Wallace was chosen historian, and Mrs. Hosmer was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of directors.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week:
The tourist section will meet on Tuesday morning, April 16. The following papers will be read: "German Universities and Student Life," Mrs. Bickford; "German Watering Places," Mrs. Whitney.

The current events and current literature sections will meet Friday afternoon.

The Browning section will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Eugene Lewis. Subjects for reading are, "Old Literature in Florence," "Andrea Del Sarto," "Fra Lippo Lippi."

The current events and current literature section will meet on Friday afternoon, April 13, at 2 o'clock. The programme will be: Paper, "Edward VII," Mrs. John Reed; paper, "George Eliot," Mrs. A. C. Ewing. As a new chairman for her home in Coalville this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Dunn, who will visit in that burg for a week or so.

Mrs. Jane Kervin is visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Lulu Roy and Miss Frieda Funk were passengers to Salt Lake yesterday for a few days' visit.

The ladies of the Congregational Church society gave a musical entertainment at their church Monday evening.

CLUB NEWS.
Ladies' Literary Club.
The programme at the Literary club Friday afternoon was an entertaining one. Mrs. C. S. Kinney read a paper on "A Woman's View of the Modern Newspaper." Judge C. C. Goodwin replied in a witty manner.

Following the meeting a business session was held. The election committee was appointed. Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Montgomery being selected. Mrs. Henry Wallace was chosen historian, and Mrs. Hosmer was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of directors.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week:
The tourist section will meet on Tuesday morning, April 16. The following papers will be read: "German Universities and Student Life," Mrs. Bickford; "German Watering Places," Mrs. Whitney.

The current events and current literature sections will meet Friday afternoon.

The Browning section will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Eugene Lewis. Subjects for reading are, "Old Literature in Florence," "Andrea Del Sarto," "Fra Lippo Lippi."

The current events and current literature section will meet on Friday afternoon, April 13, at 2 o'clock. The programme will be: Paper, "Edward VII," Mrs. John Reed; paper, "George Eliot," Mrs. A. C. Ewing. As a new chairman for her home in Coalville this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Dunn, who will visit in that burg for a week or so.

Mrs. Jane Kervin is visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Lulu Roy and Miss Frieda Funk were passengers to Salt Lake yesterday for a few days' visit.

The ladies of the Congregational Church society gave a musical entertainment at their church Monday evening.

CLUB NEWS.
Ladies' Literary Club.
The programme at the Literary club Friday afternoon was an entertaining one. Mrs. C. S. Kinney read a paper on "A Woman's View of the Modern Newspaper." Judge C. C. Goodwin replied in a witty manner.

Following the meeting a business session was held. The election committee was appointed. Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Montgomery being selected. Mrs. Henry Wallace was chosen historian, and Mrs. Hosmer was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of directors.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week:
The tourist section will meet on Tuesday morning, April 16. The following papers will be read: "German Universities and Student Life," Mrs. Bickford; "German Watering Places," Mrs. Whitney.

The current events and current literature sections will meet Friday afternoon.

The Browning section will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Eugene Lewis. Subjects for reading are, "Old Literature in Florence," "Andrea Del Sarto," "Fra Lippo Lippi."

The current events and current literature section will meet on Friday afternoon, April 13, at 2 o'clock. The programme will be: Paper, "Edward VII," Mrs. John Reed; paper, "George Eliot," Mrs. A. C. Ewing. As a new chairman for her home in Coalville this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Dunn, who will visit in that burg for a week or so.

Mrs. Jane Kervin is visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Lulu Roy and Miss Frieda Funk were passengers to Salt Lake yesterday for a few days' visit.

The ladies of the Congregational Church society gave a musical entertainment at their church Monday evening.

CLUB NEWS.
Ladies' Literary Club.
The programme at the Literary club Friday afternoon was an entertaining one. Mrs. C. S. Kinney read a paper on "A Woman's View of the Modern Newspaper." Judge C. C. Goodwin replied in a witty manner.

Following the meeting a business session was held. The election committee was appointed. Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Montgomery being selected. Mrs. Henry Wallace was chosen historian, and Mrs. Hosmer was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of directors.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week:
The tourist section will meet on Tuesday morning, April 16. The following papers will be read: "German Universities and Student Life," Mrs. Bickford; "German Watering Places," Mrs. Whitney.

The current events and current literature sections will meet Friday afternoon.

The Browning section will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Eugene Lewis. Subjects for reading are, "Old Literature in Florence," "Andrea Del Sarto," "Fra Lippo Lippi."

The current events and current literature section will meet on Friday afternoon, April 13, at 2 o'clock. The programme will be: Paper, "Edward VII," Mrs. John Reed; paper, "George Eliot," Mrs. A. C. Ewing. As a new chairman for her home in Coalville this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Dunn, who will visit in that burg for a week or so.

Mrs. Jane Kervin is visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Lulu Roy and Miss Frieda Funk were passengers to Salt Lake yesterday for a few days' visit.

The ladies of the Congregational Church society gave a musical entertainment at their church Monday evening.

CLUB NEWS.
Ladies' Literary Club.
The programme at the Literary club Friday afternoon was an entertaining one. Mrs. C. S. Kinney read a paper on "A Woman's View of the Modern Newspaper." Judge C. C. Goodwin replied in a witty manner.

Following the meeting a business session was held. The election committee was appointed. Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Montgomery being selected. Mrs. Henry Wallace was chosen historian, and Mrs. Hosmer was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of directors.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week:
The tourist section will meet on Tuesday morning, April 16. The following papers will be read: "German Universities and Student Life," Mrs. Bickford; "German Watering Places," Mrs. Whitney.

The current events and current literature sections will meet Friday afternoon.

The Browning section will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Eugene Lewis. Subjects for reading are, "Old Literature in Florence," "Andrea Del Sarto," "Fra Lippo Lippi."

The current events and current literature section will meet on Friday afternoon, April 13, at 2 o'clock. The programme will be: Paper, "Edward VII," Mrs. John Reed; paper, "George Eliot," Mrs. A. C. Ewing. As a new chairman for her home in Coalville this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Dunn, who will visit in that burg for a week or so.

Mrs. Jane Kervin is visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Lulu Roy and Miss Frieda Funk were passengers to Salt Lake yesterday for a few days' visit.

The ladies of the Congregational Church society gave a musical entertainment at their church Monday evening.

CLUB NEWS.
Ladies' Literary Club.
The programme at the Literary club Friday afternoon was an entertaining one. Mrs. C. S. Kinney read a paper on "A Woman's View of the Modern Newspaper." Judge C. C. Goodwin replied in a witty manner.

Following the meeting a business session was held. The election committee was appointed. Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Montgomery being selected. Mrs. Henry Wallace was chosen historian, and Mrs. Hosmer was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of directors.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week:
The tourist section will meet on Tuesday morning, April 16. The following papers will be read: "German Universities and Student Life," Mrs. Bickford; "German Watering Places," Mrs. Whitney.

The current events and current literature sections will meet Friday afternoon.

The Browning section will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Eugene Lewis. Subjects for reading are, "Old Literature in Florence," "Andrea Del Sarto," "Fra Lippo Lippi."

The current events and current literature section will meet on Friday afternoon, April 13, at 2 o'clock. The programme will be: Paper, "Edward VII," Mrs. John Reed; paper, "George Eliot," Mrs. A. C. Ewing. As a new chairman for her home in Coalville this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Dunn, who will visit in that burg for a week or so.

Mrs. Jane Kervin is visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Lulu Roy and Miss Frieda Funk were passengers to Salt Lake yesterday for a few days' visit.

The ladies of the Congregational Church society gave a musical entertainment at their church Monday evening.

CLUB NEWS.
Ladies' Literary Club.
The programme at the Literary club Friday afternoon was an entertaining one. Mrs. C. S. Kinney read a paper on "A Woman's View of the Modern Newspaper." Judge C. C. Goodwin replied in a witty manner.

Following the meeting a business session was held. The election committee was appointed. Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Montgomery being selected. Mrs. Henry Wallace was chosen historian, and Mrs. Hosmer was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of directors.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week:
The tourist section will meet on Tuesday morning, April 16. The following papers will be read: "German Universities and Student Life," Mrs. Bickford; "German Watering Places," Mrs. Whitney.

The current events and current literature sections will meet Friday afternoon.

The Browning section will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. Eugene Lewis. Subjects for reading are, "Old Literature in Florence," "Andrea Del Sarto," "Fra Lippo Lippi."

The current events and current literature section will meet on Friday afternoon, April 13, at 2 o'clock. The programme will be: Paper, "Edward VII," Mrs. John Reed; paper, "George Eliot," Mrs. A. C. Ewing. As a new chairman for her home in Coalville this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Dunn, who will visit in that burg for a week or so.

Mrs. Jane Kervin is visiting with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Lulu Roy and Miss Frieda Funk were passengers to Salt Lake yesterday for a few days' visit.

The ladies of the Congregational Church society gave a musical entertainment at their church Monday evening.

CLUB NEWS.
Ladies' Literary Club.
The programme at the Literary club Friday afternoon was an entertaining one. Mrs. C. S. Kinney read a paper on "A Woman's View of the Modern Newspaper." Judge C. C. Goodwin replied in a witty manner.

Following the meeting a business session was held. The election committee was appointed. Mrs. Kahn, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Montgomery being selected. Mrs. Henry Wallace was chosen historian, and Mrs. Hosmer was appointed to fill the vacancy on the board of directors.

The following meetings are scheduled for the coming week:
The tourist section will meet on Tuesday morning, April 16. The following papers will be read: "German Universities and Student Life," Mrs. Bickford; "German Watering Places," Mrs. Whitney.